

6 May 1959

Dear Bob, Jim, Dick,

(I'm addressing this to all three of you in case one or two of you are away and would not receive this on time.)

As you have probably heard, I expect to be in [ ] for about two weeks for "orientation". There are several people whom I know I must see, such as your group, [ ] group, all your friends around [ ] and his neighbors. There are probably many others whom I should see. I would like to leave all the details and arrangements to you.
